

From the Desk of the Principal.....

Dear Parents, Students, and Friends,

Sometimes, I walk through our school corridors and pause-not to check on classes or announcements, but just to listen. What I hear isn't just noise. It's the quiet hum of ideas, the laughter of collaboration, and the occasional passionate debate about things that truly matter. And that's when I remember: this is more than just a school. It's a space where young people learn how to be human in the best sense of the word—to lead with empathy, to speak with kindness, to listen with intent, and to grow not just in knowledge, but in character. It's here that education is not just about books and exams, but about becoming thoughtful, compassionate individuals who can shape a more understanding and humane world. This term has been full of moments that reminded me of the heart behind all the hard work. I want to share a few that stayed with me. During the Investiture Ceremony I could see the students feeling honoured and proud, recognizing the trust and confidence others have placed in them. There's often a strong sense of responsibility- an awareness that their actions and decisions will now impact others. Inspiring them to grow, lead by example, and make a positive difference. At our Model United Nations, I sat at the back of the committees, just observing. What I saw was astonishing. Students- some barely teenagers - stood confidently behind podiums, representing countries, tackling global issues like global health, climate change, poverty, and conflict. It wasn't about winning an award. It was about learning. We prepare citizens who are not only capable but also compassionate individuals who will work together to build a nation that is strong, resilient, and rooted in mutual respect and care for all.

Thank you, as always, for being part of this journey - with its laughter, learning, and the beautiful chaos that is education done right.

With warmth and gratitude,

Jaspal Singh Math

Principal
